

I think having an additional 5 MHZ band would be great for local emergency communications. We use this band in Civil Air Patrol and it works out very well. I have been a ham for almost 30 years and been a Red Cross Disaster Manager and CAP member. This is a good idea the FCC has proposed. I applaud you for your efforts.